The Langue Meets in Convention To-Day in Chickering Hall.

The Convention of the State League of Democratic Clubs, which is in session this afternoon at Chickering Hall, is preliminary ciation of Democratic Clubs, which will asemble to-morrow morning at the Academy of Music.

Delegates to the meeting to-day began to cerata, while the political headquarters of the Scenes of bustling activity.

It was announced that Mr. Cleveland had en invited to attend the session at Chickering Hall during to-day's session, and the sibility of his acceptance has added much to the interest in the proceedings.

The hall has been han isomely decorated

The hall has been han somely decorated for the occasion with flags and tunting, and two enormous pictures of the National bemogratic candidates have been hing above the stage. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Sixty-night Regiment Band, although some of the visiting clues have brought their own bands with them.

The Prest lent of the State League is John Boyd Thacher, of Albany, and Edmund C. Blanton is Secretary. The badges for the delegates were distributed this morning at 11 West Twenty-fourth street, and there was a great gathering of the claim in that vicinity. Among some of the distinguished out-of-fown deegates who were seen among the throng were Judge Kenny, of Rochester; Herbert P. Bissell, of Buffalo: Siccater Bush, of Elmira; Thomas K. Grosvenor, of Herkimas; Alexander Eustace, of Elmira; John J. Linson, of Kingston; Norton Cause and P. B. Deichanty, of Altany.

The speaker's scheduled are George Raines, of Rochester and W. C. De Witt, of Brooklyn. The members of the Kings County Association of Democratic Clubs came over from Brooklyn furt before noon in a body and escorted their delegates to the hall in a procession, with flags flying and drums beating.

The order of exercises, besides the speeches and the ordinary routine of business, includes the adoption of a series of resolutions neartily indorsing the canalitates of the party and the National placem.
